

HIGHER DEGREE RESEARCH - CHECKLIST

Depositing your Thesis for Online Publication in the Institutional Repository

This form is to be completed electronically and submitted via the myGriffith/Griffith Portal.
Paper copies of this form will not be accepted.

CANDIDATE DETAILS

|     |             |              |
|-----|-------------|--------------|
| ID: | First name: | Family name: |
|-----|-------------|--------------|

Email:

Please provide an email address that can be used to contact you after you have left the University.

☐ Electronic copy of approved thesis uploaded via the myGriffith portal (multiple files acceptable). The electronic version should be identical to the version submitted and approved (though material may be redacted for copyright purposes – see below). If your thesis file is greater than 15Mb, you may not be able to upload the file. In this case please submit it via email: thesisexams@griffith.edu.au, shared drive or USB. For more information contact Griffith Graduate Research School.

What program did you use to save your thesis?

- ☐ PDF (preferred). Use the latest version of Adobe Acrobat and do not set security or password protection.
☐ Other (provide details):

Are you depositing any supplementary files in addition to the thesis?

- ☐ No
☐ Yes (provide details of file formats e.g. .doc, .xls)

Important: It is your legal responsibility to ensure you have the copyright rights to publish all the material in the digital thesis you are submitting.

Often your thesis will contain the following copyright materials:

- Your own words, diagrams and other materials you created
- Diagrams, images and other materials created by others (including those you have adapted)
- Your published articles (and sometimes soon to be published articles).

As a Higher Degree by Research candidate, you will normally own the copyright in the words, diagrams and other materials you created, though your publishers will normally own the copyright in your articles. If you don't own the copyright in any of the materials listed above, you must have the copyright rights (often through written permission or a licence), to include each of these materials in your thesis for publication. If you do not have these rights, then you must:

- a) redact the material (you do not have the rights for) from your digital copy before submitting for publication, or
b) seek an embargo on the publication of your thesis until you secure all the rights.

For more information, see the HDR Copyright Guide, including How to Redact Material, Articles in Thesis Guide, and Getting Permission Guide, on Griffith's Copyright website, or contact the Information Policy Officer.

- ☐ I agree to have my thesis published online in Griffith University's institutional repository
☐ I agree I have the legal rights/permissions/licences to publish all the materials in my thesis and that I have redacted any materials that I was unable to secure the rights for (see above).
☐ I agree I will safely store all the permissions/licences and will provide them to the University if requested.
☐ I agree I have redacted all signatures from my thesis.

MORE INFORMATION

Griffith Graduate Research School
Library and Learning Services

PROTECTING STUDENT PRIVACY

Griffith University collects, stores and uses personal information only for the purposes of administration of the Griffith University institutional repository and the publication and promotion of Griffith research. The information collected will be handled in accordance with Griffith University's Privacy Plan.